SMALL FIRE IN SOUTHSIDE CITY

Flames Quenched in Their Incipency by Quick Work of the Department.

ARREST OF RICHMOND THIEF

Was Caught After Stiff Chase by Chief Lipscomb—Fire Board to Meet.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, No. 112 Hull Street.

An alarm of fire was sounded from Fifteenth and Stockton Streets at 6:40 o'clock last night, and a negro thief was being chased. The department got to the scene in a jiffy and found that the flames were eating themselves through the mantelpiece of a residence at that corner. Quick work on the part of the department prevented a big fire.

Fire Commissioners.

A regular meeting of the Board of Fire Commissioners will be held at 8 o'clock to-night in the Council Chamber.

Negro Thief Landed.

After a long chase by Chief Lipscomb and a goodly number of other citizens, who joined in pursuit, a negro thief was landed just as he was making for Mayor's bridge yesterday morning about 10 o'clock. The negro is believed to be the one wanted for several overcoats and other robberies of recent date. The negro gave the name of James White, and was seen walking down Main Street with an overcoat on his arm. Chief Lipscomb thought he recognized in him the man wanted from description, and commanded him to halt. Instead of halting the negro started on a dead run for Richmond, via Mayor's bridge. Chief Lipscomb trailed him close, but the negro began to distance him. A young man named Willie Driver tackled the negro and downed him. In his pockets were found a number of pawn tickets for clothing. He threw something into the river, which sank, and a pair of gloves were found near the spot where he was captured.

He denies that he robbed anybody, and says he bought the overcoat from a boy for $1.00. The negro says he lives in Richmond, at Jail Alley and Broad Street. Excuseman Kellam, of the Richmond force, who knows nearly every negro in the vicinity named, saw the negro yesterday, but could not recognize him.

Mayor Maurice's Court.

Mayor Maurice had lots of things before him in the Police Court yesterday. In the first place, there was a bunch of young men charged with crap shooting. They each acknowledged the deed, and were assessed $1 each, because they "fessed up."

Sam Hogue and Clarence Moles were each fined $1 for fighting.

William Williams and William Clarke were each given ninety days as suspicious characters.

Charles Newby was put under bonds for six months as a suspicious character. In his defense he attempted to prove an alibi by saying he was engaged in a crap game, and implicated several young men. The young men will be summoned to appear before the Mayor to-morrow.

Young Men Discharged.

The five young men who were charged with breaking and entering the Manchester Cotton Mills were acquitted by the jury in Judge Clifton's court.

Judge Watson, of Chesterfield, is considering arguments in the injunction proceedings of F. H. Jones vs. Henry Walker. The dispute is over the settlement of pay for a crop.

Personals and Briefs.

Rev. James Buchanan will preach at Oak Grove Baptist Church to-morrow night.

The Committee on Almshouse and Poor will meet to-morrow night. Rev. James Buchanan, city missionary, will speak at Oak Grove Baptist Church on to-morrow at 8 P. M. All are invited to attend.

INSPECT WEST END.

Four Members of the Committee See Proposed New Ground.

Messrs. Dabney, Blair, Umlauf and Bech of the Committee on Charter, Ordinances and Reform, accompanied by City Engineer Cuthaw, went over the ground which it is proposed to annex to the city in the West End yesterday afternoon. While no action was taken the members appeared pleased with what they saw.

They went out in a real tally-ho coach drawn by four prancing bays, and the trip was quite an enjoyable one, as it took in a most beautiful residential portion of the city.

Colonel Cuthaw traveled in his private carriage, but wherever stops were made, he joined the committee. All the proposed new territory has now been gone over, and the committee will shortly begin the consideration of what territory will actually be annexed.

SOURCE OF REVENUE.

Justice John Helps Pay the Debt of the City.

The small cases before Justice John yesterday netted some revenue. De Solo, Stith and C. H. Bateson, each paid $2.50 for being disorderly on the street. Lucinda Davis, colored, contributed $2.50 for being disorderly. Lucinda and Ella White, colored, were alleged to have beat each other, and were fined $5 each. J. C. Bagley paid $5 for creating a disturbance in the Second Market. Bettie Ruffin, colored, was fined $5 for being disorderly and obnoxious on the street. Eddie Johnson had a fight, which cost him $2.50. A number of plain drunks were turned loose.

Post A Will Entertain.

An informal social smoker will be given to-night at P. P. A. Headquarters, Third and Main Streets, by Post A to its members and friends. The Ladies Auxiliary will serve refreshments during the evening. The entertainment consists of a musical program, which will embrace both instrumental and vocal numbers, by several well known Richmond musicians.

These entertainments are always well attended and greatly enjoyed. All traveling men, whether members or not, are cordially invited.

Supreme Court Proceedings.

Proceedings of the Supreme Court of Appeals for Virginia yesterday follows: Burwell vs. Burwell's administrator, argued by J. P. Lee and P. H. Dillard for appellant, and R. Griffin for appellee, and submitted.

The next cases to be called are: Rocky Mount Loan & Trust Company vs. Price, et al.

Richmond & Petersburg Electric Railway Co. vs. Seaboard Air-Line Railway Company, and Farley vs. Thalhimer, being Nos. 6, 7 and 8 on argument docket.

FINE PRICE FOR PRINCE RODNEY

Mr. Cooke's Handsome Dog Brings Twelve Hundred and Fifty Dollars.

DEAL MADE BY TELEGRAPH

Faucier Fell in Love at First Sight and "Burnt the Wires."

As a result of the interchange of a series of telegrams, which are given below, Mr. Charles B. Cooke, of this city, sold yesterday a week ago his dog, Prince Rodney, for $1,250.

Mr. Cooke's dog was being shown at Hutsenville, Ill., in the Indiana Independent field trials. On Sunday, November 13th, Mr. Cooke received the following telegram from D. E. Rose, Prince Rodney's trainer:

Hutsenville, Ill., Nov. 13, 1904. Charles B. Cooke, Richmond, Va.: Prince Rodney first Victor Okaw second, Kliggraf third, Regfield Count Gladstone fourth.

11:25 A. M. Sunday.

D. E. ROSE.

The following telegrams tell their own story:

Robinson, Ill., Nov. 21, 1904. Charles B. Cooke, Richmond, Va.:

Wire lowest cash price Prince Rodney, fourth last week; no run yet this week. Richmond, Va., Nov. 21, 1904.

10:05 P. M.

Sydney J. Smith, Robinson, Ill.:

Have been offered one thousand. Will consider twelve hundred and fifty.

CHARLES B. COOKE.

10:30 P. M.

Robinson, Ill., Nov. 22, 1904.

Charles B. Cooke, Richmond, Va.:

Will take dog at price named. Wire reply here.

SYDNEY J. SMITH.

7:45 P. M.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 22, 1904.

Sydney J. Smith, Robinson, Ill.:

Send me certified check for twelve hundred and fifty. Mark on check for Prince Rodney.

CHARLES B. COOKE.

8 P. M.

Florence, Ala., Nov. 21, 1904.

Charles B. Cooke, Richmond, Va.:

Accept congratulations. Won championship with Prince. Start Martinsville Sunday.

D. E. ROSE.

12 N.

Herre Haute, Ind., Nov. 21, 1904.

Charles B. Cooke, Richmond, Va.:

En route home from trials at Clay City. Bank will wire you that full remittance is made to-morrow.

SYDNEY J. SMITH.

7 P. M.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 23, 1904.

Charles B. Cooke, Richmond, Va.:

We are making you cashier's check twelve hundred fifty dollars in behalf of Sydney Smith for Prince Rodney.

THE FLETCHER NATIONAL BANK.

4:15 P. M.

It will be seen from the above that on the day on which he was sold, Prince Rodney won the championship. Had Mr. Cooke known this he would doubtless have been able to ask and get $500 more.

Paid Only Two Hundred.

Speaking of this celebrated prize winner, Mr. Cooke says:

I bought Prince Rodney in January, 1902, from W. H. Scott, Blytheville, Mo., paying for him $30 cash and two dogs I valued at $100 each. I made up my mind to buy the dog at a fair price five minutes after I saw him in the Missouri derby in November, 1901. I ran him through the trials in 1902 without placing him a single time. I did not lose faith in the dog, because I knew he was high class. He won four times in 1903 and has won three times in 1904, including the championship of the United States. He is purely Llewellyn, as his pedigree will show. His winning by Lady's Ct. Gladstone out of Jessie Redfield, Whelped February 5, 1900; winner fourth South Dakota derby, 1901; winner third Iowa derby, 1901; winner third United States trials, 1901; winner second Manitoba chicken trials, 1903; winner fourth Monongahela trials, 1903; winner second Illinois trials, 1903; winner first Independent, 1904, Hutsenville, Ill.; winner fourth Illinois trials, 1904, Robinson, Ill.; winner United States championship, 1904, Robinson, Ill.

"He is being handled by Mr. D. E. Rose, of Florence, Ala., and will be seen at the Virginia Field Trials' Association, Martinsville, Henry county, this week."

Mr. Cooke is prominently identified with the Field Trials' Association of Virginia, and his judgment and success in choosing and handling such a high class dog as Prince Rodney will be very popular among his many friends.

EZEKIEL HONORED.

Eminent Sculptor Decorated on His Birthday by Italy's King.

A family letter, just received from Sir Moses Ezekiel, the eminent sculptor, brings gratifying intelligence of many honors bestowed upon him in connection with the recent celebration of his birthday. This happy occasion fell on the 28th of October, and though only celebrated as a family reunion, the distinguished artist received a great number of handsome presents from notable men, and from the King the decoration of "Cavaliere of the Crown." The magnificent collection of gifts embraced gold, silver, cut glass and a great variety of handsome evidences of the high esteem in which the Virginian, who has become so highly recognized in the world of art, is held.

Sent to Reformatory.

Joseph Brown colored, was sent to the Reformatory by Justice Crutchfield yesterday for taking a cap, a pair of shoes and a vest belonging to William Hubbard.

Mr. Hunley Here.

Hon. George Y. Hunley, of Matthews, is in the city, looking after some legal business.

FOR 45 YEARS

B. P. Mullen, of Boston, Says Father John's Medicine Has Been Used in His Family Almost Half a Century.

Mr. B. P. Mullen, a well known Boston caterer, says: "I was born near St. Patrick's Church, in Lowell, Mass., and remember my father, John O'Brien, giving me a bottle of the medicine which bears his name and which he procured at Carleton & Hovey's Drug Store. It has been used in my family for 45 years. It has cured me of bronchitis, and was used by my father as our family remedy. (Signed) B. P. Mullen, Caterer, 19 Leroy Street, Boston, Mass.

Here again, in this letter from Mr. Mullen, is more evidence of the authentic history and merit of Father John's Medicine. It was prescribed by an eminent specialist for the late Rev. Father John O'Brien, which it was recommended, and from whom it derived its name. It cures colds and all throat and lung troubles, and restores health and strength to run down systems. Its food elements make flesh and build up the wasted tissue, and its gentle laxative effect corrects the stomach and strengthens each part of the body to do its work properly, by which the impurities are driven out of the system.

It contains no nerve-deadening drugs or weakening stimulants upon which so many patent medicines depend for their effect, and which are dangerous. The remedy is refunded in any case where it does not do all that is claimed for it.

ARRANGING FOR THE CINCINNATI'S MEETING

Standing Committee of Virginia Society Meets Here To-morrow.

To-day there will be a meeting at the Westmoreland Club of the standing committee of the Virginia Society of the Cincinnati. This meeting is held to perfect arrangements for the triennial meeting of the General Society, which takes place in Richmond next May. Among the members of the standing committee are Dr. Geo. Ben. Johnston, Hon. John C. Hunter, Mr. Patrick Henry Clay Cabell, Mr. Randolph Tatum, and Mr. Heth Lorton, of New York.

The Cincinnati meetings of the General Society of the Cincinnati are always important, but unusual interest attaches to the meeting next spring in this city owing to the fact that this will be the first time the General Society will be the first time the General Society has met in Virginia since 1803. The society is a remarkable account of the prominent position the Virginia officers occupied in the Revolutionary Army, and in the original Cincinnati Society, established in 1783. The Virginia Society has one of the largest divisions of the Cincinnati, and General George Washington was the first president-general. Various causes, however, have prevented the General Society from meeting before in Virginia and therefore the members are looking forward with great interest to the meeting next May. The General Society is composed of representative members from the various State Societies and consists of the following: President, Mr. John C. Hunter, of New York; Vice-President, Mr. Geo. Ben. Johnston, of New York; Secretary, Mr. Patrick Henry Clay Cabell, of New York; Treasurer, Mr. Heth Lorton, of New York.

GAME A TIE.

Redskins and Olympians Have a Fine Game on College Campus.

The Redskins and the Olympians met Saturday afternoon in a very closely contested game of football on the Richmond College campus. The game was exciting from start to finish, but nothing sensational occurred until about the last two minutes of play, when the Olympians had the ball on their own 10 yard line, when a trick play gave the ball to Bailey, left half back, who ran it over yards, with twenty seconds still to play. The Redskins disputed, saying that the line was up and refused to play. Referee Mench, of Richmond College, said that he would settle the dispute, giving the Olympians ten seconds. The Redskins retired from the field, and the Olympians declared the game a tie. The game was played in the Tuxedo Saturday night was a mistake. The line up was as follows:

PLEASURE PARTY GRIEF-STRIKEN

Robert E. Knowles Commits Suicide at Dutch Gap by Shooting Himself.

WENT OFF ON A VISIT

Told Friends He Would Call on the Lighthouse Keeper, His Friend.

Without leaving word behind and without giving his friends a hint of his proposed action, Mr. Robert E. Knowles, a well-known citizen of Richmond, shot and killed himself near Dutch Gap Sunday afternoon about 4 o'clock.

In company with several friends, Mr. Knowles went down the river on a tug to spend the day at Dutch Gap. Just before getting aboard the launch, Mr. Knowles said he was not feeling well.

After landing at Dutch Gap, Mr. Knowles expressed a desire to see his old friend Lighthouse Keeper Hosier. He borrowed a pistol from one of the party, excused himself and went off toward the light house. There was nothing in his demeanor to indicate to his friends that he contemplated ending his existence and they thought nothing of his absence until the party was about to start for home. It had been agreed that they would leave at 4 o'clock. At
